WORK CONDITIONS

Work conditions are typical of those in an office setting. There may be extending periods of sitting, standing, walking up and down stairs and/or traveling on the elevator. Staff may be subject to noises such as others speaking or children playing, given the shelter’s communal living structure. There are times the shelter must go into privacy mode for the privacy or safety of staff/residents. The intercom system is used to communicate these needs.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Juris doctorate required. Licensure in Missouri and Kansas is required.

Work schedule is typically M-F. Work schedule and hours may vary; evenings and weekends may be required but are managed by the attorney based on his/her availability and the needs of the clients. Newhouse provides a flexible and virtual work environment to the extent that it does not interfere with meeting the needs of our clients and residents.

EXPERIENCE, ABILITIES + QUALIFICATIONS

- Ability to organize and prioritize tasks and assignments in order to meet deadlines
- Proven history of self-directed work to improve processes and procedures and excellent understanding of business processes and operations
- Must possess executive maturity, sound judgment and a professional appearance
- Strong strategic and analytical skills
- Integrity, honesty and high ethical standards
- Keen interpersonal skills, being sensitive to our Trauma Informed Care model
- Alignment and adherence to the Newhouse mission, vision, and principles

AT WILL EMPLOYMENT

There is no minimum period of employment guaranteed or implied by acceptance of an employment offer. It is the policy of Newhouse that employment is at will, which means that employment is for no specific term and that employment may be terminated by the employee or Newhouse at any time without cause.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY + AFFIRMATIVE ACTION EMPLOYER

Newhouse is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer. We celebrate diversity and know that in serving a diverse population and employing a diverse team, we position our organization and community to thrive. We promote diversity of thought, culture and background and are committed to a work environment that gives voice to, supports, inspires and respects all individuals.

Employment at Newhouse is solely based on a person's aptitude, qualifications and professional competence. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ancestry, national origin, religion or religious creed, mental or physical disability, medical condition, genetic information, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions), sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, marital status, military or veteran status, citizenship, or other characteristics protected by state or federal law or local ordinance.

Please submit a resume and cover letter to our team at humaira@newhousekc.org. Please put "Junior Staff Attorney Position" in the subject line of your email.

Note: This position description is not intended to be all-inclusive. You may be required to perform other related duties within your skill set as negotiated and/or directed to meet the ongoing needs of your department and the organization.

I have read and understood the duties and expectations as described in this position description.
